Porcelain Cement and Glue

For Mending

What! Broken that pretty dish? Well, that's too bad. But then you can step into Jordan's and get just the right kind of stuff to mend it and no one will ever know the difference. They have all kind of cements and glues for mending and the better kinds are.

Cementum—the Liquid Porcelain Cement. The beauty of this is, that it is all ready to use and will mend broken china, glass, porcelain, and other things of china and porcelain just fine. Then there's Poliment—an imported cement that will mend with few drops of water. This will repair china, glass, copper, tin, wood or anything that is made of any material as it is new.

Major's Cement is another fine thing for repairing broken articles, and it's the best in every household, for it has so many uses. Yes, you'll find everything here.

DINNER CONFERENCE

Of Business Men Proves Big Success

For Raising $20,000 for Y. M. C. A. Building.

The business men's dinner conference in the board of trade banquet hall Monday evening was largely attended and successful beyond the most ardent expectations. Forty-two of 100 men sat down to supper at 6:30 o'clock, prepared and served under the direction of Mrs. Henry Bingham, assisted by Mrs. W. M. Malone, Mrs. C. Lathrop, Mrs. Charles Keeney, Mrs. Julia M. Kinne, Miss Amy Wilson, all of whom were capable and in a position to make it a center of much activity along amusement lines.

They have acquired a property that has one of the best half mile tracks in the state, a substantial grand stand, exhibition building, horse and cattle buildings; in fact, a property fully equipped for the holding of a fair, light harness events, or races or sports of any nature.

Announcement is made of the sale of the property of the Putnam Park and Fair association to Richard Gorman and M. R. Joy, both of this city.

301 VOTES CAST

In Monday's Election for Aldermen in Two Wards.

There was a very quiet "little" election in Putnam Monday night, but it did not cause barely a ripple of interest and made absolutely no slip in the routine of the average man's business, although, in compliance with the state laws, the saloons were closed for the day.

The business to be done at this election was no less important than to select four aldermen, nearly half the membership of the town board, but as the candidates honored with the regular nominations were without opposition and the probability of their election as they are of having a successful Christmas dinner, and as this condition was not a matter of public interest, more than a passing interest and enthusiasm in the official process of selecting a quartette of city fathers, though every one was desirous of full party votes.

A total of 301 citizens enjoying the right of suffrage in the city cast their ballots. Fifteen of this number fell victims to the intricacies of marking the ballot, and a number of them because they failed to put that all essential X in a circle at the head of the ticket. This, however, had no effect on the result.

From the Second ward J. Clinton Nichols, republican, and Ernest L. Lewis, democrat, were elected. Mr. Nichols received 203 votes, Mrs. Davis received 78.

From the Fourth ward G. Allen Hawkins, republican, and Dr. Omer Larue, democrat, were elected. Mr. Hawkins received 136 votes, Dr. Larue received 55.

Of the scattering votes for persons not nominated, Charles W. Bradley, democrat, received 5 votes, William E. Warren, republican, 1; John Byrne, republican, 1; E. V. Joslin, who had a friend who wanted to vote for him, but a cross that made the ballot a marked one caused it to be thrown out.

Election Officials.
Leon T. Wilson was moderator of the meeting. The counters were Eugene Berthelme, Joseph Ryan, W. E. Lewis, Frank Taylor, Peter A. Gardiner and Hildas Broder.

In accordance with the provisions of the city charter, Moderator Wilson at the close of business declared the meeting adjourned until the first Monday in March, as is the custom.

DIVISION 1, A. O. H.

O'Brien; vice president, James Weeks; recording secretary, William Irving; financial secretary, Edward May Jr.; treasurer, James Roberts; sergeant at arms, L. P. Ryan; sentinel, John McGarry.

The newly elected officers will be installed at the January meeting by County President Thomas P. Ryan of this city.

FURNISHING COMMITTEE

Appointed from School Board for Completion of High School Fittings.

Mayor Archibald Macdonald, Elias M. Wheelock, Attorney Eric H. Johnson and Charles W. Bradley were members of a committee completed at a meeting of the school board Monday afternoon, this committee being for the purpose of investigating and securing estimates of the cost of furnishing the new high school building, which it is expected will be fully completed by May 1st. The committee is to report back to the school board, and the estimates they make will be used as a basis for making the appropriations that will be asked from the town.

Vacuum Cleaning System.
